

Test Out and Refresher Test Out Schedule

May through August 2008

Required for revalidation of basic required competency – for care givers who were trained before May 2005. Eligibility varies among individuals, depending on the date and location of initial training. Please call the MORC Training Department at (248) 276-8031 to inquire regarding which units may be tested.

Test Out is for:

1. Individuals who received their entry-level training through MORC more than three years ago (refresher test out) or who last tested out more than three years ago. Please note that test out eligibility is different for those trained before 1996 than for those trained since 1996. Individuals may not test out on units that have not been completed successfully.
2. Providing MORC certification for individuals who received their entry-level training at any time from an agency or organization other than MORC. Individuals trained elsewhere may test out of units that were successfully completed and are comparable to MORC training. Valid documentation of the initial training from another agency or organization must be on file with the MORC Training Department in order to schedule staff for test out. Individuals may not test out on units that were not completed successfully.

Individuals scheduled for test out should have reviewed the training manual and performance skills before arriving for test out. Review of materials and skills are not conducted on the day of test out.
