NURSING FACILITY TRANSITIONS PROGRAM

At MORC, Inc., we support those we serve to be as independent as possible for as long as possible. For those currently residing in a nursing home, MORC offers a path back to community living through its Nursing Facility Transition Program.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR THE NURSING FACILITY TRANSITION PROGRAM?

Services are available to residents of nursing facilities who would like to return to their own home, move in with family members, find an apartment, assisted living or other community-based living option. Services needed after an individual moves back home may be available to those who meet financial eligibility guidelines.

HOW DOES THE PROGRAM WORK?

- 1. Referral: A referral for transition services may be made by an individual living in a nursing facility, a family member, friend or social worker.
- 2. Plan Development: A personal transition plan will be developed by you and your transition coordinator, with input from others if desired. This plan may take several months to ensure a successful return to the community.

- 3. Housing: Help is available if you need to adapt your home or find affordable and accessible housing.

- Transportation
- Delivered Meals
- Private Nursing Care
- Support Coordination

WHAT TYPES OF SERVICES ARE AVAILABLE?

- Assistance with one-time moving expenses such as a security or utility deposit, housekeeping supplies or other essentials.
- Assistance in securing the necessary supports to live independently as long as possible
- Community Living Supports
