

CHOOSE MORC

SELF DETERMINATION

At MORC, Inc., we respect your right to make the decisions that are best for you. We are committed to helping you every step of the way by telling you about available resources, giving advice and providing the necessary services to support your choices.

Living your life your way is called self-determination.

WHAT SELF-DETERMINATION MEANS FOR YOU

- You decide where you want to live, work and have fun.
- You decide who you want to help you reach your goals and dreams.
- You control your budget so your money can work for you.
- You can have your family, friends and MORC support staff help you with decisions to make sure your health and safety needs are met.

MORC

- You receive the supports you need without giving up control of your life.
- You can choose to hire your own staff and what to pay them (within MORC market rates).

HOW TO MAKE SELF-DETERMINATION WORK FOR YOU

- Discuss the option with your MORC Support Coordinator.
- Think about the types of services and supports you need based on your situation and the goals you have for your life.
- Think about who in your life you want to help you with your services.
- Develop an emergency plan in case staff don't show up.
