Professional Goals

I would like to help individuals become aware of available services while encouraging independence and following one's dreams

Availability

I am available on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday mornings.

Qualities

I'm well-versed in available services, and can navigate the mental health system very well. I'm also very out-going and motivated, and have very good listening skills.

Work Experience

- Volunteer at Paws with a Cause since 1994
- New Hire Trainer at OCCMHA 2007

Additional Skills and Abilities

- Oakland County RICC Chairperson
- Board Member of Community Housing Network
- Recipient of the Dan Moran Award for Advocacy in 2010
- Dove Award winner in 2009
- Volunteer at my local church

Job Supports Provided

I am available to offer tips and personal experiences regarding setting up a micro-business. I can also assist people in accessing both university and post-secondary programs. I have extensive background in Independent Facilitation.
